He's A Cowboy Now

Las Vegas, New Mexico—Ernest Friel, freshman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Friel, Marlinton, is a member of the 1957 Highlands University football squad coached by Don Gibson.

The Highlands Cowboys are members of the Frontier Conference and last year racked up a record of five wins, two losses, and one tie. This year's team seems sure to set an even better record, having won three of their first five starts.

HOLMES GOES UP

THE AGGIES' DICK HOLMES, who turned in a fine performance Saturday night, goes high in the air to take a non Duenas-tossed aerial in spite of the defense thrown by Highlands' quarterback Elmer Friel. Holmes gained 120 yards on the receiving end of aerials, but the Cowboys triumphed, 19-12.

With just a few minutes left in the game, Rodgers got off a spectacular pass to Taylor, good for 58 yards and the T.D. In the final half, Gibson sent in reserves and all 28 men saw action with the second string.

Mr. Elmer Friel
Marlinton
West Virginia

Dear Elmer,

I am in the process of contacting prospective football players for 1954. We are in the building process here at Highlands and any boy with an average amount of ability and a lot of desire to play could really make a name for himself here.

Your former Coach, Claude Miller, has recommended you very highly. Having been a teammate of Coach Miller's for four years at Marshall I know you have been well versed in fundamentals, hard work, and the single wing formation. All of these would be to your advantage at Highlands, because Claude and I believe in the same methods.

Highlands can offer you many advantages that you would not receive elsewhere. It is an education in itself to travel in this section of the country.

Since you are not in school now you would be eligible to roll for our Spring Quarter, which begins March 29. This would give you an opportunity to take part in our spring practice.

I would appreciate hearing from you if you are at all interested, at which time I will write you the details of our scholarship plan. Also send a transcript of your High School credits.

Sincerely,

Don Gibson

Penn State Said Interested In Andy Cook of Braxton Co.

"When has Penn State ever looked at anybody in this area?" asked Braxton County football coach Vinsen Post.

Well, this year Penn State has expressed interest in Braxton County's Andy Cook, who just happens to be defensive captain of the second annual All-Central team.

Cook starred in Braxton County's secondary.

Ricky Tracy, who led regular season scoring in West Virginia with 156 points for Cowen, heads the offense.

Repeaters from last year's inaugural team, compiled by The Gazette from a canvass of coaches in Nicholas, Pocahontas, Webster, Braxton, Gilmer, Calhoun, Roane and Clay counties, are: giant 245-pound tackle-linebacker Luke McKinney of Webster Springs, who ranks as a major college prospect; kicker-fullback Roger Sharp of Pocahontas County; and Cowen's dynamic duo of Tom Leslie and Tracy.

Tracy and Leslie, both three-year regulars, led Cowen to its best record in 22 years.

MARVIN GOTTHARD of Cowen, whose Bulldogs compiled a 7-3 record, was named coach of the offense. Defensive coaching honors went to Walton's Jim Hamric, who turned a losing team into a winner. Walton racked up a 6-1-3 campaign, with all six victories coming via the shutout route.

In a footnote to last year's team, David Cain of Pocahontas County—one of the co-captains—was the second leading rusher on the 1972 Little Mountaineers of WVU.

Who says this region doesn't produce quality football players?

The All-Central team is a forerunner of the All-Southern, which will be announced Saturday morning.

A 93-yard drive that consumed 8 minutes, 22 seconds in the final period produced the Warriors' second touchdown. Quarterback Richard Oref clicked on passes of 47 and 14 yards to Phillip Hill to pace the drive. Keith Pondexter went the final yard for the T.D.

It was a defensive struggle most of the night, with Pocahontas holding an 11-4 edge in first downs. The Warriors rushed for 135 yards and passed for 71 yards. The Grizzlies rushed for 37 yards and passed for 16 yards.

Here are the results of Friday's area football games:

Ravenwood 30, Spencer 12 — Doug Ritchie romped for three touchdowns and 176 yards to lead the Red Devils to a rout at Spencer. Ritchie scored the first three touchdowns for the hot Devils, including one on a run of 66 yards. Ravenwood has now won four in a row after dropping its first two games. Dave Parsons added 65 yards rushing for Ravenwood.

Man 3, Pocahontas County 0—Man, the state's top-ranked Class AA team, had to struggle for its undefeated life in putting down a gambling Pocahontas County team in the Hillbillies' homecoming game. Wallace Kirk, whose extra point kick launched Man's season with a 13-12 victory over Ceredo-Kenova, kicked a 32-yard field goal on the first place of the second quarter.

Pocahontas County, slipping to 4-2, controlled the ball for the majority of the time in the second half and moved to Man's goaline before being repulsed in the third quarter.

Moe Isaacs intercepted two Pocahontas passes as Man posted its fourth straight shutout and moved its record to 6-0.

Pocahontas County's defense limited

Man to a pair of first downs. Pocahontas had seven as Richard Oref completed four of 15 passes for 52 yards. Man's big fullback, Eric King, carried 11 times for 35 yards in the game featuring two rugged defenses.

Man took possession on the Pocahontas 36 and moved to the 15 in seven plays, including a fumble recovery by Dennis Brown following King's fourth-down run of seven yards, to keep alive the march. With fourth and five from the 15, Kirk did the job.

Pocahontas County strung together four first downs and consumed 6:22 of the third quarter in moving to the Man goal. Oref's 15-yard pass to Wayne Cassell gave Pocahontas first and goal from the three. Oref then carried within inches of a touchdown, but Pocahontas jumped offside on second down and was moved back to the five. Mike Ryder's halfback pass was incomplete, and the ball was recovered by Bruce Johnson in the end zone.

Pocahontas faked a Ronnie Sharp field goal attempt, but Oref, the holder, took the football and passed short of Bruce Johnson in the end zone.

Oref's 13-yard return of a Man punt gave his team possession on the Hillbillies' 35 in the fourth quarter. Pocahontas gained two first downs but Isaacs intercepted Ryder's halfback pass on the six and returned to the 19.

Later, Charlie King tipped an Oref pass from the hands of Johnson to abort the last Pocahontas threat.

Hamlin 19, Marsh Fork 12—Sandy Shelton scored a pair of first-half touchdowns in leading Hamlin to its third win of the season at the Marsh Fork Field. Rexel Vickers added Hamlin's clinching TD on a 20-yard run in the fourth quarter. Jeff Ross scored Marsh Fork's first TD and passed 50 yards to Mark Ross for the second. Mark Ross led all rushers with 92 yards and teammate Mickey Daniels gained 77. Shelton gained 67 for the Bobcats. The result left both teams at 3-3.

Greenbrier West 28, Webster 0 — Tim Boothe returned a punt 60 yards for one touchdown and added another score on a 74-yard run to pace the seventh-ranked Cavaliers at Upper-glade. John Walker got West going with a 30-yard run with an interception for the first touchdown and Marvin Bonner capped the scoring with a 15-yard run. West is now 5-1 and Webster 3-3.

Braxton County 16, Richwood 14—Braxton County's Chris Shuman quarter. Pocahontas' two-point conversions in leading Braxton to a narrow win over a winless, but fighting, Richwood team. Ricky Morris's 85-yard run and Shuman's one-yard burst accounted for the touchdowns in Braxton's second win of the season. For Richwood, Rod Davis scored a pair of touchdowns and passed for a two-point conversion.

Scott 27, Van 6—Scott exploded for 27 points in the four quarter to gain its third victory. Van also scored its touchdown in the action-packed fourth period. Mike Byus carried 17 times for 96 yards, Steve Ball 19 for 83 and Mark Lilly 9 for 62 to pace the Scott attack that produced 264 yards rushing.

"Our defense played good throughout," Scott coach Bernie Carney said. Byus and John Lilly had interceptions, Jerry Cook was in on 10 tackles and Davi Long participated in 11 and recovered a fumble.

Ball scored twice, Byus once and Mark Lilly capped the fourth-quarter fireworks with a 74-yard kickoff return. Terry Justice ran 20 yards for Van's TD. Van is 1-5 and Scott 3-3.

Clay 27, Gauley Bridge 8— Julian Montgomery scored the first 19 points for Clay with both his running and his kicking at Clay. He booted field goals of 39 and 35 yards for the Panthers in addition to scoring on 51 and 2-yard runs. Montgomery, a senior, ran or 107 yards in 16 carries. He has kicked four field goals and eight of nine extra points this season. Greg Ford tal-

Oak Hill's Lilly Eyes Red-Le

By Bob Fretwell
Assistant Sports Editor

OAK HILL—Jim Lilly of Oak Hill High School is on the threshold of becoming a legend in his own time.

Lilly's Red Devils play at Fayetteville tonight, and, if they emerge victorious it'll be a red-letter night in the life of this disciple of Jerome Van Meter, the famed "Greg Eagle" of Beckley High School coaching fame whose basketball, football and track teams registered more than 700 victories.

A win would be Lilly's 400th in high school basketball. It would elevate him to a plateau attained only by Bill Reppert of Fairmont West and Elmer Friel of Pocahontas County among active high school basketball coaches in the state.

Lilly has been a fixture at Oak Hill, except for time out to earn a master's degree, since arriving on the scene in 1963 when the Red Devils were in the throes of a 44-game losing streak. He promptly remedied that and his teams here have won 223 games. His first 176 wins came at Gretna in Pennsylvania County, Va., at Gauley Bridge and at Logan.

"I've enjoyed it," said the coach of 29 seasons who teaches classes in business mathematics and consumer living. Some of the hardest earned and most treasured wins of his career have come at Oak Hill because "we've always been small. We've never had a premier big man. We've won with quickness and hustle."

His 1979-80 team is no exception, although it is ahead of schedule of Lilly's yearly average of 14 wins at Oak Hill. It is 10-4 and features 6-foot-1 Mike Sulesky, who last week scored 25 points in a loss to arch rival Beckley, 14 in limited action in a win over Doddridge County and 22 Saturday night when the Red Devils knocked Greenbrier East from the unbeaten ranks.

OVER THE YEARS, this former minor league baseball player has matched coaching genius with the likes of Van Meter, Lawrence Wiseman of Beckley and Ken Hunt of Richwood, for whom the Hunt Award symbolic of the state's best high school football lineman is named.

"I was part of the St. Louis Cardinals' chain gang," he recalled of his baseball playing days at Marion, Ohio, Johnstown, Pa. "and somewhere in Georgia that I hardly staying enough to sign gists." One fringe benefit was that he aged with Leon Rapp, who played at Charleston with the Cardinals.

But Lilly, whose brother is the highly respected Gil College basketball coach, turned to coaching.

"I guess it was the Van Meter (a member of Virginia Hall of Fame) 'I've always admired him ways and invited his player graduated from Beckley to come back and scrimmaged the baseball team and footballills stayed long enough to sign a hotel register." One fringe benefit was spring training with the Cardinals. Another was that he once roomed with Vernon Rapp, who later managed teams at Charleston and eventually the Cardinals.

"I still carry on that

But Lilly, whose brother Jesse is the highly respected Greenville State College basketball coach, soon turned to coaching.

"I guess it was the influence of Van Meter (a member of the West Virginia Hall of Fame)," he mused. "I've always admired him and he always invited his players, after they graduated from Beckley High School, to come back and scrimmage against the basketball team and help run the football drills. I still carry on that tradition. It's good family relationship to have the boys back after they've gone on to college or whatever, to fool around the gym or to sit and talk, particularly over the Christmas season. It's time well spent."

Lilly's Red Devils advanced to the state basketball tournament in 1969 at Huntington and in 1976 at the Charleston Civic Center. His Oak Hill teams have achieved state ranking and recognition in eight seasons.

Despite all the wins (and losses), the coach doesn't buy the conviction of Kim James, who broadcasts Red Devil sports with Shirley Love over Radio WRJL, that this member of the Lilly clan has turned Oak Hill from a football to a basketball town.

"I think he's the best thing that ever happened to Oak Hill sports,"

Jim Lilly
Oak Hill Institution

James said, resting his case and getting the last word on the matter.

"when conditions warrant such action, the officials should have exhausted every means possible to continue play before forfeiting the game."

The game was called by Woodridge Kirk

PCHS Football

The Pocahontas County High School football team began practice last week in preparation for the upcoming season. Head football coach, Elmer Friel, greeted 44 boys that will compete on the varsity level and a large turnout of 30 freshmen that reported to practice.

The first couple of weeks of practice are designed for conditioning purposes. The team practices every week night in shorts for 2½ hours. The coaches are emphasizing fundamentals and drills and have been running the boys through a tough conditioning program. On August 16 the team will begin double practices in full pads. The practices will take place in the morning and afternoon with a lunch break in between.

The Warriors again play a tough schedule this year as they have in the past few years. Three of their opponents (Man., Central Preston, and Greenbrier West) were in the State AA playoffs last year. Elmer Friel is hoping that the enthusiasm and hard work will find Pocahontas in post-season play this year.

The Warriors will be counting heavily on their returning lettermen. They include: Capt. Robbie Simmons, Robbie McNabb,

Family-Fan Night

The Pocahontas Warrior football team will present their First Annual Family-Fan Night on August 30 at 7:30 p.m. in the PCHS gym. This event will be new to many people but will be a most enjoyable evening to all.

The Warrior football team under head football coach Elmer Friel and his staff will explain different formations and defenses that the Warrior will be using. This will hopefully help the fans to be able to know why the Warriors line up in a certain way in different games.

Coach Elmer Friel will also present the varsity football team to the public. The team will be dressed in their new game uniforms and will be available for pictures to anyone wishing to take them. This is an added special event in that parents, fans, and girl friends never have time to get that special portrait that will mean so much in days to come.

So don't miss the Family-Fan night. The Warriors and their coaching staff are excited with the upcoming season and are hoping that the fans will follow them as they try for a bid for the state playoffs. This will be an evening worth devoting to "your" football team.

NEW YORK (UPI) — Venus doesn't know who she'll play in today's finals of the U.S. Open Championship and she doesn't care. She's too happy to care anything.

Three-time defending champion Evert was leading 3-1 in her match Friday against last year's Australian Wendy Turnbull when it was postponed after a one-hour rain delay. That match resumed this morning.

Evert will play world No. 1 Steffi Graf Saturday. She's been
